| Assessment | There is often no homework assigned during the semester; however, students must be self-disciplined and study throughout the semester to prepare for final exams. The final grade or score received is based primarily on one final exam or project. In addition to courses offered at HTWG, students may also choose to receive credit by working independently on a project. |
| Grading    | The classroom performance of an exchange student at HTWG is documented by a German grade:1,0 – 1,5 very good1,6 – 2,5 good2,6 – 3,5 satisfactory3,6– 4,0 sufficient4,1– 5 fail                                                                                                                                                                             |

| Orientation Programs | In March and September, the International Office offers an Orientation Program for incoming exchange students. Information regarding important university services, the university, and the city are provided in an informal setting. During this initial orientation phase, students will be assisted with bureaucratic formalities, but can also partake in social activities, cultural events and excursions. Incoming students for the fall semester have the opportunity to attend a two-week long intensive German language course (only in September) for free. |
