

This course develops student's skills to deepen grammar acquirements applied to colloquial situations and the scientific world. In addition to practicing grammar and standard vocabulary the main emphasis will be put on developing the students' communicative skills (basic / independent user level A2-B1, CEFR). Grading will be based on regular active attendance, homework assignments, oral presentations, quizzes and a final examination.

