

Objectives:

The course is designed to provide students with an overview of the most important international legal issues.

Contents:

The main topics covered in this course are:

- relevant international legal provisions, e.g. bi- and multilateral international agreements
- legal bodies in international law
- conflict of laws
- CISG
- international monetary system
- international protection of investment and IP
- human rights in international law

Assessment:

Assessment of this course is based on a presentation on an international business law topic divided into a theoretical part and the presentation and discussion of a respective current topic (e.g. news, press, court proceedings); preparation of related documents (presentation and handout).