ABOUT SZTU

Shenzhen Technology University is a high-standard public university jointly built by Guangdong Province and Shenzhen Municipality, officially approved by the Ministry of Education in 2018. Located in Pingshan District, SZTU is home to over 15,600 students across undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programmes. Centered on engineering, it also develops disciplines including science, economics, management, arts and liberal arts. The university has established 17 schools with 41 undergraduate majors. Three disciplines — Materials Science, Engineering and Chemistry — have entered the ESI global top 1%. Rooted in the Greater Bay Area's industrial ecosystem, SZTU prioritizes industry-education integration and cultivates innovative engineers and entrepreneurs, boasting world-class campus facilities and a multicultural international learning environment.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES (SFL)

Founded in April 2020, the School of Foreign Languages builds an integrated framework of teaching, practice and research to cultivate interdisciplinary foreign-language talents. The school has more than 70 full-time faculty members, most with overseas study or work experience. It offers seven language courses and three undergraduate majors: English, Business English and German, together with a Master of Translation and Interpreting (MTI) programme. Around 800 undergraduate and postgraduate students are enrolled here. Equipped with language studios, writing centers and other practical training platforms, SFL runs diverse university-enterprise cooperation and global exchange activities to strengthen students' cross-cultural competence and international vision.
